➔ In general, depending on the printer, tuck and fold boxes are a little more expensive. Plain Kraft boxes are usually cheaper but limited design work. Some box printers are using digital printing and therefore only offer 4C printing so the price will not differ. So, even if you only want 1-2C printing, the price is all the same.

PACKOLA PRICING: Standard White and Kraft Brown has the same pricing. Regarding the colors, they use CMYK digital printing so each colors are a combination of these color process. For example, a black color can be a rich black which is composed of 30% Cyan ink, 30% Magenta ink, 30% Yellow ink and 100% Key/Black ink. So no matter how many colors there are on the artwork, the pricing will be the same. Pricing will only have a difference if you select outside, inside or both side print.
